

Mr Alexander

Concerns:

Kelly Gottschalk -

See news stories from Tucson, AZ. She was Chief Investment person for the Tucson Fund where there were problems with funding and transparency.

More transparency issues - Annual reports before 2014 are missing from the DPFP website even though they are listed as being available for view. March, 2016 board minutes are missing. From your open records documents it looks like many travel expenses are now hidden under general American Express charges.

James Perry - see DPFP Minutes and press releases

Hired as Chief Investment Officer, September 1, 2015.

Recommended Maples Services at October 8, 2015 board meeting. Firm was hired.

Cleaned out his office in February, 2016. Staff was told he was going to work from his home in Austin and came up for board meetings

Rumor he recommended the Board hire an investment firm that his son was working at.

Left Fund in May or June, 2016 (Last Board Meeting he attended was May 12, 2016).

Started working for Maples in July, 2016. No notice that he is gone - so much for transparency. Isn't there an ethics policy that precludes an employee from leaving directly to a firm the fund does business with - especially when he was the one who recommended them?

Dallas Police & Fire Pension Names Inaugural CIO

James Perry, currently assistant CIO for the Texas Tech's endowment, has been tapped to lead the deeply underfunded pension plan.

James

The Dallas Police & Fire Pension System (DPFP) has hired its first CIO.

The $3.1 billion retirement fund named James Perry as its investment chief, scheduled to begin September 1.

Perry

Perry is currently serving as assistant CIO and assistant vice chancellor for Texas Tech University System's $1.1 billion endowment. He began in March 2014.

Working closely with CIO Tim Barrett, Perry has been "instrumental in restructuring several major asset classes, including private equity and real estate," DPFP said. He was also responsible for leading Texas Tech's efforts in credit, alternative equity, and liquid real assets, according to his LinkedIn profile.

"He has impressive credentials and the relevant experience to lead our portfolio," said Kelly Gottschalk, DPFP's executive director. "We believe he is the right person to lead our investments strategy moving forward and will help us achieve our long-term goals."

The Dallas pension plan suffered a 9% hit to its portfolio after overstating returns on its real asset investments, reporting losses of $460 million for 2014.

Advisors Buck Consultants told the DPFP board last month that the pension plan could run out of money within 25 years.

“Considering the magnitude of the 2014 and 2013 losses, as well as the size of the nontraditional assets, we may need to reevaluate how the asset return is determined,” Buck Consultants said in July.

The consultant said the pension fund is currently 71.4% funded. DPFP’s documents reported a net loss of 3.8% for the year ending March 31, 2015.

Prior to his position at Texas Tech, Perry was a senior investment officer at the San Bernardino County Employees’ Retirement Association (SBCERA) for almost a decade.

At SBCERA, Perry introduced direct hedge funds and took charge of the development and expansion of the fund’s diversified global debt portfolio.

He was also a “significant contributor” in developing SBCERA’s tactical asset allocation strategies and constructing the portable alpha program, his LinkedIn profile said.

Perry has an MBA from National University and a bachelor's degree from the University of Houston. He is also a Chartered Financial Analyst and Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst.

C. DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION REGARDING ITEMS FOR INDIVIDUAL CONSIDERATION

1. Investment Reporting – Maples Fund Services

At the September 24, 2015 Investment Advisory Committee (IAC) meeting, Maples Fund Services presented and reviewed a Consolidated Portfolio Reporting Package.

Regular Board Meeting
Thursday, October 8, 2015

1. Investment Reporting – Maples Fund Services (continued)

Mr. Perry, Chief Investment Officer, reviewed the Consolidated Portfolio Reporting Package proposed by Maples Fund Services with the Board. The reporting package is recommended as a tool to quickly see graphically the impact of individual managers on asset class performance as well as how the portfolio is allocated and performing relative to benchmarks and goals. The insight gained from these reports aids trustees in the performance of their fiduciary duty and in having well-informed discussions with staff and consultants regarding the structure and risk profile of the portfolio.

After discussion, Mr. Schutz made a motion to accept the IAC recommendation to engage Maples Fund Services for reporting purposes, and authorize the Executive Director to execute documentation, perform all necessary acts, and exercise all appropriate discretion to facilitate this service. Mr. Brown seconded the motion, which was unanimously approved by the Board.

2. Allianz Global EcoTrends and Energy Opportunities Capital Management

Mr. Perry stated that at the September 24, 2015 IAC meeting, staff and NEPC, general investment consultant, reviewed the rationale for recommending termination of Allianz Global EcoTrends and Energy Opportunities Capital Management.

Staff is recommending termination of Allianz Global EcoTrends and Energy Opportunities Capital Management from the Global Equity portfolio. These investment managers have demonstrated consistent underperformance relative to their benchmarks, as well as the ACWI global equity benchmark, and rank in the lower quartiles of global equity managers over the long term. Since inception, both investment managers achieved lower returns with higher volatility than the MSCI ACWI and are therefore detracting from performance while adding to the risk of the Global Equity portfolio.

After discussion, Mr. Schutz made a motion to accept the IAC recommendation to approve and authorize the Executive Director to execute documentation and perform all necessary acts to liquidate the investments with Allianz Global EcoTrends and Energy Opportunities Capital Management. Mr. Conway seconded the motion, which was unanimously approved by the Board.
